Amy L. VonDielingen Joins Krieg DeVault's Business and Estate Planning Practices

November 28, 2022

Krieg DeVault LLP is pleased to announce that Amy L. VonDielingen has joined the firm as a Partner in the firm's Business and Estate Planning and Administration Practices. Amy brings more than 17 years of legal experience to the firm, previously serving as Partner in the Indianapolis office of the law firm of Dinsmore & Shohl.

Amy's corporate law practice will focus on advising entrepreneurs and closely-held companies in connection with business formation and entity selection, succession planning, contract review, disputes between owners of closely-held companies, asset and stock sales and acquisitions, and other issues that may arise during the life-cycle of a business. In her estate planning practice she works with individuals and families to develop wealth-transfer plans, considering factors such as succession of business ownership and management, asset protection, minimizing gift and estate taxes, and achieving charitable objectives. She also counsels personal representatives, trustees, and beneficiaries regarding estate and trust administration matters, including advising court-appointed personal representatives in unsupervised estates, assisting with the administration of statutory small estates, and asserting the rights of trust and estate beneficiaries.

Amy is actively involved in the National Association of Women Business Owners and is a member of the Indianapolis and Indiana State Bar Associations. She is admitted to practice in Indiana and will counsel clients from the firm's Carmel, Indiana office.
