Jennifer Ping Receives Indianapolis Choice Award from National Association of Women Business Owners

November 11, 2021

Krieg DeVault is pleased to announce that Executive Director of Governmental Affairs, Jennifer L. Ping, has received the prestigious 2021 Indianapolis Choice Award from the National Association of Women Business Owners "NAWBO".

The Indianapolis Choice award, which is awarded at NAWBO's annual Visionary Awards Luncheon, honors one outstanding individual who serves as a powerful advocate for NAWBO-Indianapolis and woman-owned businesses throughout the state. Recipients of this award have a demonstrated history of helping woman-owned businesses reach their full potential while improving the overall business climate via contracting opportunities and/or advocacy efforts. This year's awards luncheon took place on November 10, 2021.

Created in 2004, the Visionary Awards were established to honor Indianapolis' successful and dynamic women business owners. NAWBO members and corporate partners submit nominations which are reviewed by business leaders throughout the state of Indiana. NAWBO is the unified voice of America's more than 10 million women-owned businesses representing the fastest growing segment of the market. NAWBO's mission encompasses propelling women business owners into greater economic, social and political spheres worldwide.

Jennifer Ping serves as Executive Director of Governmental Affairs in the firm's Governmental Affairs and Public Advocacy Practice. With more than twenty years of experience in government relations, she focuses her practice on federal, state and local legislative and executive branch lobbying and procurement consulting, political consulting, government regulatory consulting, and grassroots and grasstops consulting.

Throughout her career, Ms. Ping has been active in helping to shape Indiana's governmental landscape. She was the first female elected as chairwoman of the Marion County Republican Party and served as campaign chair and finance chair for the Sue Ellspermann for Lieutenant Governor. For 10 years she served as vice chair for the Marion County Republican Central Committee and vice chair of the 7th Indiana Congressional District for the Indiana State Republican Party. Ms. Ping also was the Chairwoman for Women for Pence Coalition for Indiana Governor Mike Pence.
