

Insights

Krieg DeVault LLP Announces Partnership of Libby Yin Mote

January 14, 2008

Indianapolis, Indiana - Libby Yin Mote has been named a partner in the law firm of Krieg DeVault LLP.

Ms. Mote originally joined Krieg DeVault in 2001 after clerking for the Honorable James S. Kirsch, the Honorable Sanford M. Brook (ret.), and the Honorable Edward W. Najam, Jr. of the Indiana Court of Appeals. Ms. Mote returned to Krieg DeVault in 2006 after practicing with the Denver, Colorado office of Greenberg Traurig, LLP. Ms. Mote focuses her work in the areas of business and commercial litigation, with a significant emphasis on motion and appellate practice. She has assisted clients with appeals in state and federal courts across the country and in the U.S. Supreme Court. She has represented amicus curiae parties before the Indiana appellate courts as well. Ms. Mote also has experience in administrative law matters, shareholder and contract disputes, trade secret claims, antitrust litigation, issues involving RICO, and wage and hour class actions. Ms. Mote is a graduate of Indiana University and the Indiana University School of Law. Ms. Mote resides in Indianapolis, Indiana.

Krieg DeVault LLP is a 125-plus professional, diversified law firm representing a wide variety of local, regional and national clients. It is a business-focused law firm with offices in Indianapolis, Carmel, Noblesville, Schererville, Indiana and Chicago, Illinois. The firm's attorneys have significant experience in key areas that address the needs of a diversified client base. Through its membership in Meritas, the firm's ability to assist clients reaches around the world.