Krieg DeVault Opens Second Florida Office in Naples

September 30, 2012

Krieg DeVault is pleased to announce the opening of the firm's newest office in Naples, Florida. This office will support the firm's growing estate, business succession and tax practices and marks the second Krieg DeVault office location in Florida to open since 2009 (Boca Grande).

"We appreciate the trust and support from our clients which has, in large part, allowed us to expand our business model into additional markets," said Rodney S. Retzner, Partner and Chair of the firm's Estate Planning and Administration Practice. "Having a second location in Florida will allow us to better serve our growing client base in this market."

Partner Lisa M. Glenn will be the primary attorneys working with the firm's Florida clients in the areas of estate planning and tax. The Naples office marks the tenth office nationally for Krieg DeVault.
