Partner Amy J. Adolay to present at Enterprise Health's webinar "COVID vaccine legalities and logistical challenges" - February 16, 2021

February 12, 2021

Administering COVID vaccines to employees and the community at large is fraught with legal and logistical challenges. Join us for a free webinar on Tuesday, February 16 to hear from a panel of legal and occupational health experts, including Partner Amy J. Adolay, who will share insights and front-line learning on rolling out a mass immunization program.

Webinar attendees will learn about:

- Regulatory standards and employer/employee impacts
- Practical workplace rollout, bargaining unit discussions and implications for workplace medical programs
- The practical challenges of setting up a corporate COVID vaccination program for employees and family members
