Travis D. Lovett Joins Krieg DeVault's Business, Acquisitions, and Securities Practice

---

September 15, 2021

Krieg DeVault LLP is pleased to announce that Travis D. Lovett has joined as an Associate in the Firm's Business, Acquisitions, and Securities Practice. He will be an integral member of the firm's business and corporate team, providing counsel in the areas of mergers and acquisitions, securities, corporate governance, and other general corporate matters. Mr. Lovett brings a depth of legal experience to Krieg DeVault, including assisting clients with economic development initiatives, and providing counsel relating to tribal and state government contracts, as well as governance initiatives for Indigenous communities, including tribal bylaws, election acts, and employment and housing policies.

Before joining Krieg DeVault, Mr. Lovett served as a Staff Attorney with Indiana's Legislative Services Agency where he collaborated with state legislators and lobbyists to draft legislation in the areas of business, tax, and economic development. While there, he served as lead counsel to the Indiana Senate Agriculture Committee and Indiana House Agricultural and Rural Development Committee. Mr. Lovett also served as a Tribal Attorney for Indigenous communities in Canada where he routinely negotiated with government officials to determine if natural resource projects infringed Indigenous lands and advised tribal leaders on corporate and governance matters.

Mr. Lovett is a graduate of Sandra Day O'Connor College of Law and earned his M.B.A. from Indiana University's Kelley School of Business. He holds membership in the Indianapolis Bar Association and the Venture Club of Indiana. Additionally, Mr. Lovett is a former World Champion Native American Powwow Dancer in the United States and Canada. In his free time, he enjoys spending time with family and attending live music and sporting events.
