

Michael A. Moffatt Jr.

Associate
Office: Indianapolis
mmoffatt@kdlegal.com
p: 317-238-6309
f: 317-636-1507

Michael A. Moffatt Jr. is an Associate with the firm's Litigation Practice. Mr. Moffatt primarily devotes his practice to commercial litigation matters focusing on legal research and writing.

Prior to joining Krieg DeVault, Mr. Moffatt served as an Associate Attorney at a Midwest law firm concentrating in insurance defense litigation. He has also worked at the Indiana Court of Appeals under Judge Margret Robb as a Judicial Law Clerk conducting legal research and drafting appellate opinions. Mr. Moffatt also has experience working in the Marion County Commercial Court under Judge Heather Welch and the Indiana Supreme Court under Justice Steven David. Mr. Moffatt is a graduate of Indiana University Robert H. McKinney School of Law. He joins the firm's Indianapolis office.

Education

- J.D., cum laude, Indiana University Robert H. McKinney School of Law, Indianapolis, Indiana, 2020
- B.S. in Finance and Operations Management, Indiana University, Kelly School of Business, Bloomington, Indiana, 2016

Bar & Court Admissions

- Indiana (2020)
- U.S. District Court for the Southern District of Indiana (2023)
- U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Indiana (2024)

Practices

- Litigation and Dispute Resolution
- Financial Services
- Health Care

Industries

- Health Care Litigation

Representative Experience

- Legal Research
- Drafting Appellate Opinions
- Drafting Dispositive Motions and Pleadings
- Composing Memorandums and Bench-Briefs